Here's a Health- Trad. arr. Maidens IV

Tabitha Justice, Lead Vocal, Electric Guitar, Bass, Bodhrán ~ Abigail Justice, Vocals, Viola ~ Heather (Justice) Mantel, Vocals, Drums, Bodhrán ~ Havilah Justice, Vocals, Violin

Kind friends and companions, come join me in rhyme. Let us lift up our voices in chorus with mine. Let us drink and be merry, all grief to refrain, for we may or may never all meet here again

The ship lies at harbor she's ready to dock, I hope she's safe landing without any shock.
For if ever we meet by land or by sea, I will always remember her kindness to me.

Kind friends and companions...

So here's a health to the company and one to my lass, let us drink and be merry all out of one glass, let us drink and be merry all grief to refrain. For we may or might never all meet here again...

Call To Dance- Havilah Justice, arr. Maidens IV

You take the high road, and I'll take the low road, and I'll reach Scotland before thee. For me and my true love will never meet again, on the bonny, bonny banks of Loch Lomond.

Home again, I'm going home... You take the high road...

I was born in the country of Kerry. My Granddaddy had an old fiddle, and this is the tune he played to me. I was born in the country of Kerry, near the town of sweet Cahirciveen. It was there the people are merry, 'mid the hills and the valleys so green. My Granddaddy had an old fiddle, t'was he who made the melodies flow, and always my cradle was rockin' to the tunes he played so rollicking. He played good old Rosin the bow.

Now boys take the floor with your colleens, and shake up, shake up your heel and your toe. Just loosen that fiddler's elbow and he'll play you up Rosin the Bow.

On the day I was married to Eileen, my Granddad was still to the fore, with his fiddle to set your heart dancing, when the brogues met the good earthen floor. Now I think of the bright smiling faces, most are gone where the best of us go, still in memory I hear the glad laughter and the strains he played so sweetly, he plays good old Rosin the Bow.

Now boys take the floor...

When my troubles and trials are over, may my dust rest in Kerry's dear ground, and my soul that loved God and Ireland, to Heaven I hope will be bound. And there, sure I'll see around me, the dear ones I loved here below. On the harp I'm no good, but with cat-gut and wood, sure I'll crack them all up with Rosin... I'll play them good old Rosin the Bow.

Now boys take the floor...

Grace Out Loud- Tabitha Justice, arr. Maidens IV

Tabitha Justice, Lead Vocal, Electric & Acoustic Guitar, Bass, ~ Abigail Justice, Vocals, Viola, Djembe ~ Heather (Justice) Mantel, Vocals, Drums, ~ Havilah Justice, Vocals, Violin

Live out loud, live out loud. Only by His Grace we live out loud...

T'was grace that taught my heart to fear and I'm so relieved, Oh, it's such a precious thing that he's given t'me, the Lord God lives, gives, the grace that appears, if you only see. You know, I know, there are many dangers in this life, one minuet you're here and one minuet you're gone for life, so as you can gather we're not the makers of this life if you're saved its through the grace of the God of life.

Oh, I'm here and now only by his grace, we sing aloud the praises of his name, in front of every crowd He gives us the strength and the meaning to live out loud. We live out loud, in front of every crowd we live out loud; we live out loud, only by His grace we live out loud.

When this heart and flesh will fail and mortal life shall cease, I will possess within the veil a life of joy and peace, Oh, it's only through His grace that he would save a wretch like me, everyone of us are lost but through His eyes we can see.

Oh, I'm here and now only by his grace...

I once was lost, but now I'm found, was blind but now, I see.

Oh, I'm here and now only by his grace... We sing out loud, in front of every crowd we sing out loud. We sing out loud, only by His grace we sing out loud. We live out loud, in front of every crowd we live out loud. We live out loud, only by His grace we live out loud

Danny Boy- Trad. arr. Maidens IV

Tabitha Justice, Vocals, Piano, Electric & Acoustic Guitar, Bass ~ Abigail Justice, Lead Vocal, Viola ~ Heather (Justice) Mantel, Vocals, Drums, ~ Havilah Justice, Vocals, Violin

Oh, Danny boy their callin'. From glen to glen, down the mountain side. Oh, Danny boy, Oh, Danny boy, I love you so. Oh, Danny boy, the pipes the pipes... Oh, Danny boy, the pipes the pipes are callin'.

Oh, Danny boy their callin'...

Come on, come on won't you all sing along? Come on dance; get the groove of our sing-along-song. Come on, come on won't you all sing along? Come on dance get the groove of our sing-along-song. Come on everybody....

Hey now everybody, are you ready...

The Potter - Tabitha Justice, arr. Maidens IV

Tabitha Justice, Lead Vocal, Acoustic Guitar ~ Abigail Justice, Vocals, Djembe ~ Heather (Justice) Mantel, Vocals, percussion ~ Havilah Justice, Vocals

Looking at the sun and feeling the warmth, how it flows within. Looking the stars and the wonder of the universe, and far beyond what we cannot see.

We look up, we look down; we look around the ground, we look to find the way; that you lead us to now...

You are the Potter and I am the clay and you save me with your unchanging ways. You mold me and make me with your own hands, won't you show me the way of your unchanging plans. Only you...

Looking at the earth and the life you give, how it lives for you. Looking at the joy that you give to us everyday, and the life we live, we live for you.

We look up...

You are Lord everlasting, your Lord of my heart, you know the way I walk, you know, the bruises and the scars.

Oh, Lord won't you open the doors, of my heart, won't you give me the strength to walk the path that I might take, I might live for you, live for you, only, from day to day, Oh, Lord you are the God of almighty ways...

Number five has arrived and we'd like to thank some very special folks. First off, we want to thank our very cool studio engineer Paul Hamann for his gentle guidance and patient work on our project. Chad Rall for his mad video and hard working road crew talents. Heather's husband Jeremy for his always ready smile, joyful can-do personality, and some crazy amazing road and gear tackling skills. Our loving and never failing Mom. From teaching us our very first violin lesson to running our sound board and coaching our stage show, Mom has been there since the beginning. We love you Mom! And last but certainly not least, our family, fans and friends who cheer us on in our common love of music.
Thank you!
